Akademski ženski zbor Univerze v Tartuju si je pridobil svetovni ugled v glasbeno blagoslovjeni Estoniji, pa tudi onkraj njenih meja, čeprav se članice v njem velikokrat zamenjajo. V 68 letih delovanja je bil zbor sestavni del estonskih zborovskih festivalov. Dosežki doma so bili okronani s številnimi nagradami na državnih tekmovanjih in imenovanji na mednarodnih. Leta 1990, na predvečer drugega obdobja estonske neodvisnosti in na vrhuncu tamkajšnje »pevske revolucije«, je zbor osvojil prvo mesto in veliko nagrado na prvem mednarodnem tekmovanju v Riva del Gardi v Italiji. Pomemben dosežek na mednarodnih tekmovanjih so tudi tretja nagrada v sakralni in posvetni kategoriji ter uvrstitev med najboljših pet zborov, ki so se potegovali za veliko nagrado na tekmovanju v sklopu Griegovega festivala v Bergerenu na Norveškem, ter prva nagrada v kategoriji ženskih zborov na mednarodnem tekmovanju Tallinn 2011, ki vsako leto poteka v Talinu v Estoniji. Zbor je ustanovil skladatelj Richard Ritsing, dolgo ga je kot glavna dirigentka vodila Vaike Uibopuu. Leta 2005 je taktirko prevzela Triin Koch, ki jo dosledno prištevajo med najbolj nadarjene estonske zborovodje.

In spite of its ever-changing membership, the University of Tartu Academic Women's Choir has won renown not only in musically-blessed Estonia, but also beyond. During its 68 years of existence, the choir has been a part of Estonia's continuing song festivals. Its achievements at home have been crowned by many national prizes as well as nominations in international competitions. In 1990, on the eve of Estonia's second period of independence, at the crest of its "Singing Revolution", the choir won first place and the Grand Prix in Italy at the first International Choir Competition in Riva del Garda. The most recent achievements in international competitions include third prize in both sacred and secular music and being selected as one of the top five choirs vying for the Grand Prix at the 2009 Grieg Festival competition in Bergen, Norway, and first prize among women's choirs in the annual international competition "Tallinn 2011" held in Tallinn, Estonia. Founded by the composer Richard Ritsing, its long-time primary conductor was Vaike Uibopuu. The current conductor, Triin Koch, who has been repeatedly acknowledged as one of Estonia's most talented choral conductors, took over the baton in 2005.

MÄNNERSTIMMEN BASEL

zborovodja/conductor
Oliver Rudin

Oblačila iz petdesetih let, pumarice, naramnice, žametni sukniči: navzven je moški zbor Männerstimmen Basel namenoma staromoden, čeprav ga sestavlajo mladi možje, ki so s srcem in dušo predani moški zborovski literaturi. Pisana družina torej, katere kakovost opazi žirija doma in na tujem. Zmagali so v kategoriji moških zborov na Svetovnih zborovskih igrah v Cincinnati leta 2012, dobili nagrado za najboljšo izvedbo sodobnega dela na tekmovanju Fleischmann International Trophy Competition v Corku leta 2011. To pa se ni zgodilo po naključju. Številni pevci imajo izkušnje iz otroških in mladinskih zborov ali pa študirajo glasbo. Leta 2008 so ga ustavnili nekdanji pevci deškega zpora Knabenkantorei Basel, dirigirata pa mu Oliver Rudin in David Rossel. Zasedba je pripravljena na vsak iziv: pri dobra znanih sodobnih skladateljih (Rudolf Jaggi, Gion Antoni Derungs) redno naroča nova dela, ali pa izbrska neznano in dolgo pozabljeno glasbo. Njihov občutek za lastno estetiko se kaže pri večtem uporabljaju novih medijev, v katerih predstavljajo navade klasičnega moškega zpora in jih hkrati spreminja. Tako je zasedba Männerstimmen Basel hkrati mlada in staromodna.

Clothes from the '50s, knickerbockers, suspenders, corduroy jackets: from the outside the Männerstimmen Basel are deliberately antiquated, but those clothes are worn by young men, who committed heart and soul to the male chorus literature. A mixed bunch, which qualities impress juries at home and abroad, such as the victory in the category "men's choirs" at the World Choir Games in Cincinnati 2012, the prize for the best interpretation of a contemporary work at the "Fleischmann International Trophy Competition" in Cork in 2011 and numerous other awards. A project like this is not created by accident. Many of the singers have a past in children's and youth choirs or study music. The choir was founded 2008 by former singers of Knabenkantorei Basel and is conducted by Oliver Rudin and David Rossel. Regularly the Männerstimmen award a commission to well-known contemporary composers (Rudolf Jaggi, Gion Antoni Derungs), or dig up unknown and long forgotten music, ready for any challenge. Additionally, there is a soft spot for their own aesthetic, evident in the artful handling of new media, which presents the classic men's choir habits and simultaneously transforms them. Thus the Männerstimmen Basel are young and old-fashioned at the same time.

KAMMERCHOR ALUMNI HEIDELBERG

zborovodja/conductor
Werner Glöggler

Leta 2003 so Komorni zbor Alumni ustanovili nekdanji člani Komornega zbara gimnazije Kurfürst-Friedrich, ki je po zmagi na Nemškem zborovskem tekmovanju leta 1994 kot eden najboljših mladinskih zborov na svetu prejel številne nagrade. Idejna zasnova zborovodja Wernerja Glöglerja se namenoma osredotoča na zahtevni čisti ton a cappella. Tega razvija v raznovrstnih programih, ki zajemajo vse sloge in obdobja. Zbor očara občinstvo s svojo homogenostjo in intenzivno interpretacijo. Prav tako izkoristijo priložnosti, da v svojih koncertnih projektih preizkusijo nove, inovativne oblike predstavitev. Glede na navedeno bo najdrznejša akustična študija skladateljev sodobne glasbe za občinstvo nepozaben dogodek. Zbor je pred kratkim osvojil prvo nagrado in dosegel oceno summa cum laude na Tonen-Festivalu na Nizozemskem, zborovodja Werner Glöggler pa je prejel preferenčno nagrado za zborovodjo festivala.

In 2003, the Kammerchor Alumni was founded by former members of the Kammerchor am Kurfürst-Friedrich-Gymnasium, who had received numerous awards as one of the best youth choirs in the world after winning the German Choir Competition in 1994. The idea of the conductor Werner Glöggler focusses deliberately on the demanding pure a-capella tone. He cultivates this tone in varied programmes, covering all styles and ages. The choir compells the audience with its homogeneousness and intense interpretation. They also take the chance to try out new and innovating forms of presentation in their concert projects. These facts considered, the most dashing experimental acoustic study of contemporary composers will be an unforgettable event to the audience. Recently, the choir won the first prize, achieving a „Summa cum laude“ at the Tonen-Festival in the Netherlands. Moreover, the conductor Werner Glöggler was awarded the preferential prize „Conductor of the Festival“.

STOCKHOLMS MUSIKGYMNASIUM CHAMBER CHOIR

zborovodkinja/conductor
Helene Stureborg

Leta 1989 je zbor ustanovil Gary Graden, ki je takrat poučeval na šoli, da bi študentom lahko ponudil širše izkušnje v zborovskem petju kot dopolnitve rednega zborovskega izobraževanja na Glasbeni gimnaziji v Stockholmu. Zbor si je pridobil velik ugled in zmagal na več mednarodnih tekmovanjih. V zgodovini zasedbe izstopa tudi povabilo na simpozij Mednarodnega združenja za zborovsko glasbo (IFCM) v Ljubljani leta 1995, kjer je zbor zastopal Švedsko. Od leta 2002 s tem nadarjenim zborom dela Helene Stureborg, zborovodja in od leta 1990 profesorica glasbe na šoli. Izdali so dve zgoščenki (God Jul in Ave Maria) ter se uspešno udeleževali zborovskih tekmovanj in festivalov (Tours, Marktoberdorf, Cork, Usedomer Musikfestival, Concordia Vocis in Cagliariju na Sardiniji in Evropski festival mladinskih zborov v Baslu). Seveda so izvedli tudi številne koncerte (program vključuje Bachov Komm, Jesu, komm, Mahlerjev Ich bin der Welt abhanden gekommen in Martinovo Mašo za dva zpora), nastopili v berlinski stolnici in se udeležili turneje z Andrejem Bocelijem v Oslo, Kopenhagnu in Stockholmumu (2010). Zbor vadi dve uri na teden po polnem šolskem dnevu. Ker imajo pevci na glasbeni gimnaziji le tri leta družboslovja ali naravoslovja, se v zboru vsako leto zamenja 10-12 od skupaj 38 članov.

The choir was founded in 1989, by Gary Graden, at the time music teacher at the school, in order to offer the students extended experiences in choral singing as a complement to the regular choral education at The Stockholms Musikgymnasium. The choir has gained a wide spread reputation and has won several international competitions. Another highlight in the choir's history was the invitation to the IFCM (International Federation of Choral Music) Symposium in Ljubljana in 1995, where the Chamber choir represented Sweden. Since 2002, Helene Stureborg, conductor and music teacher at the school since 1990, works with this talented choir. They have produced two CDs (God Jul and Ave Maria) and have been successful in choir competitions and festivals (Tours, Marktoberdorf, Cork, Usedomer Musikfestival, Concordia Vocis in Cagliari, Sardinia, and the European Youth-Choir Festival Basel). They have of course given a lot of concerts (program also including Bach: Komm, Jesu, komm, Mahler: Ich bin der Welt abhanden gekommen and Martin: Mass for double-choir), performed in Berliner Dom, and went on a tour with Andrea Bocelli in Oslo, Copenhagen and Stockholm (2010). The choir rehearse two hours per week after a full school-day. Since the singers study Humanities or Natural Sciences during only three years at the Stockholm's Musikgymnasium, the choir change 10-12 of the in all 38 members every year.

Mladinski zbor Resonans con tutti iz Zabrž sta leta 1970 ustanovila Maria in Norbert Kroczeš. Zasedba je sestavljena iz skoraj 80 navdušencev nad zborovsko glasbo – predvsem mladih, starih od 15 do 27 let. Waldemar Gałiązka vodi zbor od leta 1994, nad zvočno podobo pa bedi druga zborovodkinja, Arlena Rózycka-Gałiązka. Zborov repertoar zajema dela a cappella, pa tudi vokalno-instrumentalne skladbe različnih obdobjij (med drugim mojstrovine, kot so Rekviemi Mozarta, Fauréja, Verdija in Webbra; Mesija G. F. Haendla, Carmina Burana Carla Orffa, pa tudi številne maše Beethovna, Gounoda, Mozarta ...). V sezoni imajo približno 60 koncertov (omeniti je treba izvedbi za papeža Janeza Pavla II. in nekdanjega predsednika ZRN Richarda von Weizsäckerja). Resonans con tutti se redno udeležujejo tekmovanj, nazadnje so bili nagrajeni v Riminiju (Italija), Olomucu (Češka), Toursu (Francija), Ohridu (Makedonija) in Westlandu (Nizozemska). Pevci zasedbe Resonans con tutti zelo cenijo lepoto izvajane glasbe in to, da jih občinstvo ceni. S svojimi vokalnimi izvedbami poskušajo razširjati zborovsko glasbo na Poljskem in onkraj njenih meja.

RESONANS CON TUTTI

Waldemar Gałiązka

The Zabrze Youth Choir „Resonans con tutti“ was founded in 1970 by Maria and Norbert Kroczeš. The ensemble consists of nearly 80 choral music enthusiasts – mostly youth between 15-27 years old. Waldemar Gałiązka has been the conductor of the choir since 1994. The voice emission is taken care of by the 2nd conductor, Arlena Rózycka-Gałiązka. The choir's repertoire embraces both a cappella pieces, as well as vocal-instrumental compositions originating from various ages (including masterpieces „Requiem“ by Mozart, Faure, Verdi and Webber; „The Messiah“ by Georg Friedrich Haendel; „Carmina Burana“ by Carl Orff, and numerous masses written by Beethoven, Gounod, Mozart ...). They give approximately 60 concerts every season (worth mentioning are the performances for Pope John Paul II and the former President of FRG Richard von Weizsäcker). „Resonans con tutti“ has been regularly taking part in competitions - most recently, they were awarded in Rimini (Italy), Olomouc (The Czech Republic), Tours (France), Ohrid (Macedonia), as well as Westland (Netherlands). The singers of „Resonans con tutti“ highly value the beauty of music performed and appreciation of the audience. Thanks to their vocal performances, they try to promote choral music in Poland and beyond its borders.

Zbor Konservatorija za glasbo in balet Ljubljana deluje v sklopu programa umetniške gimnazije in ima približno 60 članov. Zbor je po dolgoletnem uspešnem vodenju Tomaža Habeta leta 2010 prevzel Ambrož Čopi. V njem prepevajo dijaki, ki niso vključeni v šolske orkestre. Izvajajo stišno in žanrsko raznovrstni program. Posebno pozornost namenjajo izvodbam skladb sodobnih slovenskih skladateljev, s svojo dejavnostjo pa spodbujajo najmlajšo skladateljsko generacijo k nastajanju novih del, ki jih uspešno promovirajo na koncertih in tekmovanjih po Sloveniji in tujini.

Zbor se je v zadnjih dveh letih uspešno predstavljal na mednarodnem zborovskem tekmovanju sodobne glasbe Canti veris Praga (Češka, 2013, s posebno nagrado za interpretacijo sodobne slovenske glasbe in veliko nagrado), na mednarodnem zborovskem festivalu v Gdansku (Poljska, 2012 – dve zlati plaketi in prvi mestni), na slovenskem državnem tekmovanju otroških in mladinskih zborov Zagorje ob Savi (Slovenija, 2012 – zlata plaketa z odliko in prvo mesto v kategoriji mešanih mladinskih zborov) in na tekmovanju Samoborsko zborško protulete (Hrvaška, 2011). Na povabilo organizatorjev je v letošnji sezoni nastopal kot gost 45. srečanja hrvaških pevskih zborov v Novigradu (Hrvaška), na nastopu Najboljši iz Zagorja v organizaciji GM Ljubljana v Slovenski filharmoniji.

ZBOR KONSERVATORIJA ZA GLASBO IN BALET LJUBLJANA

zborovodja/conductor
Ambrož Čopi

The choir of the Ljubljana Conservatory for Music and Ballet is organized as a part of the artistic gymnasium program and consists of about 60 members. After years of successfully performing under Tomaž Habe, Ambrož Čopi assumed its leadership in 2010. Students not included in school orchestras sing in the choir. Special attention is given to compositions by contemporary Slovene composers, thus encouraging the youngest generation of conductors to create new compositions which are then successfully promoted in concerts and at competitions in Slovenia and abroad. They have successfully introduced themselves in the past two years at the choral competition of contemporary music Canti veris Praga (Czech Republic, 2013, winning a special prize for the interpretation of contemporary Slovenian music and the Grand Prix), the international choral festival in Gdańsk (Poland, 2012, two golden plaques and first prizes), the national competition of children's and youth choirs Zagorje ob Savi (Slovenia, 2012 – golden plaque cum laude and first prize in mixed youth choirs), and Samoborsko zborško protulete competition (Croatia, 2011). Upon an invitation by the organizers, the choir performed as guests of the 45th gathering of Croatian choirs in Novigrad (Croatia), and at the Best from Zagorje performance, organized in the Slovenian Philharmonic Hall by the Glasbena Matica Ljubljana Music Society.

OTROŠKA FOLKLORNA SKUPINA OŠ ŠENTJERNEJ

vodja skupine/artistic leader Maja Sintič Miklavž
Šentjernej, Slovenija/Slovenia

Otroška folklorna skupina (OFS) Šentjernej deluje v tej sestavi štiri leta, najprej pa so bili dejavnici v sklopu krožka Otroške ljudske rajalne igre. Zaradi velikega zanimanja za to dejavnost se je oblikovala OFS. V njej so otroci, stari od 10 do 13 let. Folklornike druži veselje do poustvarjanja otroškega ljudskega izročila, predvsem ljudske pesmi. V teh letih delovanja smo pripravili kar nekaj odrskih postavitev in se z njimi predstavili na območnih, regijskih in trikrat tudi na državnem srečanju OFS, Ringaraja. Spomladini so nas povabili v Antonov dom na Viču, kjer smo se z ljudsko pesmijo kot edina otroška folklorna skupina v Sloveniji predstavili na prireditvi Pa ta viža ni preč. Nastopamo na šolskih in zunajšolskih prireditvah ter se povezujemo z različnimi društvji in posamezniki v kraju, ki ohranjajo ljubezen do ljudskega izročila.

Children's folklore group (OFS) Šentjernej has been performing in the current setting for four years, but they were first active as a part of the Children's folk-merry-making games circle. Due to a large interest for this activity, OFS was formed. It consists of children, aged from 10 to 13. The folklorists are connected through their joy to re-create children's folk-heritage, primarily the folk-song. In these four years, they have prepared a number of stage performances and introduced themselves at local, regional and, thrice, the national OFS gathering Ringaraja. Last spring, they were invited to Ljubljana where they introduced themselves as the only children's folklore group in Slovenia at the review »Pa ta viža ni preč« (But that tune is not aloof). They perform at events within and beyond the school and connect with local associations and individuals that preserve the love for folk tradition.

MURNOVI GODCI

vodja skupine/artistic leader Miha Zupanc
Podblica, Slovenija/Slovenia

Murnovi godci so priložnostna/projektna skupina približno 10 godcev, prihajajo pa iz Podblice in nekaj sosednjih vasi. Vsi igrajo več instrumentov, so potomci starejših godcev in so oz. še vedno igrajo na svatbah. Skupina je bila ustanovljena jeseni 2012, da bi nadaljevala in poustvarjala lokalno godčevsko izročilo iz svoje Selške doline na Gorenjskem. Predstavljajo se z različnimi zasedbami predvsem starih restavriranih instrumentov (razne harmonike, klarineti, krilovka, trobenta, bariton, tuba, kontrabas, violina, citre, orglice, kitara).

»Murnovi godci« (»The Murn Fiddlers«) are an occasional/project group consisting of around 10 fiddlers that come from Podblica and some neighboring villages. The fiddlers in the group are mainly multi-instrumentalists, descendants of older fiddlers, and had all been performing or still perform at wedding celebrations. The group was founded in autumn of 2012 with the goal of both continuing as well as re-creating the local fiddler's tradition of their home region, the Selška valley in Upper Carniola. They introduce themselves in various ensembles of mostly old restored instruments (different accordions, clarinets, flugelhorn, baritone horn, tuba, contrabass, violin, cither, harmonica, guitar, ...).

VOLK FOLK

Ilirska Bistrica, Slovenia/Slovenia

Skupina Volk folk iz Ilirske Bistre nadaljuje družinsko godčevsko in pevsko tradicijo s tega konca Slovenije, posebej iz vasi Velika Bukovica, od koder rod izvira. Žemljepisno se tam stikata Notranjska in Primorska, v glasbi pa se srečujejo in prepletajo sredozemski in alpski vplivi. Način njihovega glasbenega izvajanja sega od zvestega upoštevanja izročila do svobodnejših predelav z avtorskimi posegi. Nina igra oprekelj (brano) in tržaško diatonično harmoniko (plonorco), brat Gregor violin (škant), oče Romeo pa kontrabass (bas). Vsi trije tudi zapojejo.

The group »Volk folk« from Ilirska Bistrica continues a family tradition of fiddling and singing from their part of Slovenia, especially Velika Bukovica village, whence their lineage descends. Geographically, this is the junction of Inner Carniola and Littoral, and, musically, a meeting and an intertwining of Mediterranean and Alpine influences. The manner of their musical performance ranges from faithfully following the tradition, to more free arrangements with authorial (or authentic) touches. Nina plays the »oprekelj« (a cyther-like instrument) as well as a 'Trieste' diatonic accordion (»plonorca«), Gregor the violin (»škant«), and Romeo the contrabass (bass). The three also sing.

GALLUS

Jacobus Handl - Gallus oz. Jakob Petelin (1550–1591) je zaščitno znamenje slovenske zborovske glasbe: ob njegovih madrigalih in motetih se naši zbori šolajo, po njem so poimenovana tudi priznanja za dosežke v slovenskem zborovskem ustvarjanju. Njegova zbrana dela so natisnjena v 20 knjigah, za njegovo oživljeno navzočnost na koncertnih odrih je od svojih začetkov pred polovico stoletja skrbelo nacionalno, od pozneje pa tudi mednarodno zborovsko tekmovanje v Mariboru. Obe priznani prireditvi potekata pod Gallusovim gesлом MUSICA NOSTER AMOR – GLASBA, NAŠA LJUBEZEN in Gallus je na odru dvorane Union zazvenel tisočkrat in tisočkrat v izvedbi domačih in tujih zborov. Da gre za kraj, posvečen Gallusu, od leta 2011 priča njegov portret v bronu, ki ga je ustvarila akademska kiparka Metka Kavčič Takač.

Jacobus Handl – Gallus (1550-1591) is a trade mark of Slovene choral music. His motets and madrigals are indispensable in every choir's repertoire and several awards for choral achievements in Slovenia are named after him. His collected work is published in 20 books.

National and international choral competition Maribor is responsible for constant appearance of Gallus' work on the concert stages.

Both competitions appear under the motto "Musica noster amor" – Music, our love and the music of Gallus sounded over thousand times on the stage of Union hall. The very same hall holds the bronze statue of Jacobus Handl – Gallus, made by academic sculptor Metka Kavčič Takač in 2011.
